

An exhibition of works by Dorset artist, Liz Shewan.

Liz Shewan was born in Sao Paulo, Brazil and now lives in the beautiful patchwork of rolling hills in the middle of Dorset, which proffers her much inspiration.

Inspired by nature in all things, Liz aims to connect the viewer to the magic and wonder in the depths of life to inspire the heart.

She hopes to inspire peace, kindness, indulgence in the most important things. Being lost in the moment. Being able to let go.

After years of study Liz now also practices as an Energy Healing Consultant for both people and animals, which in her mind fits very well with her artwork. She is an active member of the Visionary Arts Community, regularly facilitating educational workshops for regional artists. Liz has held exhibitions nationally and been featured regularly both through self-promotion and by gallery representation. Her work is loved by art lovers, animal lovers, the spiritually minded, collectors and those looking to take their first steps into the world of fine art; and is featured in collections in the UK, Brazil, France, USA, New Zealand, Spain and Ireland.
